

A Church that equips you to be faithful & fruitful.

February is considered the month of love -- how is your love life going? No, not just that romance between you and that certain member of the opposite sex -- how about your love for God -- and for others? John the beloved lays out the challenge for us in 1Jn.4.

Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent His only Son into the world so that we might live through Him. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. ...if we love one another, God abides in us and His love is perfected in us. (1Jn.4:7-9,11,12b)

John, the apostle of love sets the mark and the motivation for the love that we are to demonstrate towards each other. He (& God's Word) speaks as an authoritative voice on the subject.

We are spending much of this year on a tour through the gospel of John each Sunday. What is it about the gospel of John that makes it so worth our time? After all, it doesn't tell us much of anything about Jesus' birth, temptation, common parables, last supper, praying in Gethsemane, or His ascension. But it does fill in so many gaps of time and events and leaves us with so many unique details of Jesus and His ministry!

These days we are looking at Nicodemus and the woman at the well. Lord willing, we'll also look at the raising of Lazarus and other unusual miracles, Jesus' teachings on the Holy Spirit, His encounter with the adulteress woman, and at Him as our Good Shepherd. Join us each week for this journey together and let God build your love for Jesus, for His Word, and for His people!

Be in prayer for many of our church family as we battle through various illnesses at this time.
Be in prayer for our committees in their formation and as we begin to look ahead.
Be in prayer for our search committee as we re-tool in our search for a student pastor.

Our loving God has great things in store for us individually...and as a church family! Join us each service that you can in-person. For those times that you can't, join us on the Livestream or view the current week's video on the website -- and return in-person as soon as you can. Let's show the world how vital it is to love one another.

Lovingly Yours, Pastor Wade
